Stewardship Quote

Today’s readings speak of hospitality. Abraham, who cheerfully did for his guests all that desert hospitality required, was rewarded with his heart’s desire—a son. Martha also busied herself with all the details of hospitality, but grudgingly and with complaint. Am I a cheerful or a grudging giver?

Read about these stories in the July 17 Witness

- ◆ After the loss of his wife to Alzheimer's Disease recently, Deacon Mike Blouin is helping to expand efforts to support people who care for those with forms of dementia in Dubuque
- ◆ A feature on efforts in some parishes around the archdiocese to clothe the naked during this Year of Mercy
- ◆ A building that housed a Planned Parenthood in Dubuque where as recently as this year web-cam abortions were performed recently became the headquarters of a crisis pregnancy clinic founded on Christian principals that helps women have and support their babies

The Archdiocese will be honoring all couples who are witnesses to God’s love through fifty years or more in the Sacrament of Marriage. These couples are invited to join Archbishop Michael Jackels as he
