Stewardship Quote

In the first reading, Isaiah urges us in the name of the Lord to feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, and clothe the naked. If we do so, he assures us, the Lord will hear and answer our cries for help in time of need.

Cluster Announcements

A message from Archbishop Jackels:

One of our mission priorities is to teach stewardship as a way of life and a course of action. As a way of life, stewardship teaches that we do not own anything; all is on loan from God, entrusted to us to manage. And as a course of action, stewardship teaches us to manage according to God's good pleasure, that is, to provide what is needed to live in dignity to the poor, our dependents, and ourselves. Helping those who cannot protect or provide for themselves is an essential practice of our Catholic religion; indeed, it is the mark of authenticity for followers of Jesus. The Archdiocesan Office of Catholic Charities helps us help the poor: organizing the work, enlisting volunteers, and securing donations, such as with this annual appeal. As you consider how much you will share in the annual appeal, think about what Jesus said: Give and gifts will be given to you ... The measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.

In anticipation of your sacrificial gift, thank you.

Archbishop Michael Jackels

Opening Prayer

Keep your family safe, O Lord, with unflinching care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by your protection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
